Chairman's Letter

A few years back I said we had the harbour in our sights and hoped we would dock safely—well I think we have. We have worked hard to get back to 'normal'. You know what we did and what a wonderful year 2023 was. A bit wet but it brought so much more to our shows.

At the Spring Show we awarded the new Phyllis Broadway Novice Trophy for the first time.

Rose Evening saw new members win trophies; summer brought another mass of scent and colour.

A talk on the walled garden of Ramsbury Manor and then the Autumn Show brought a whole host from dahlias to seedheads and did you see those pumpkins!

To round off the year's events we celebrated with the New Years party, wine tasting and supper. All wonderful events which we could not have hosted without your support.

This year as always the committee worked hard at various tasks behind the scenes and were forced to eat cake at meetings—I tell you its hard work.

We have networked with surrounding villages in the Benefice to welcome new friends to our Society.

The year also saw a new judge join our team. Antony has a whole host of experience. We welcome him also as a speaker and the quizmaster at the annual quiz against Lambourn in March at home this year. We also welcome new stewards join us.

Looking forward once again we have made changes to classes and quantities, check out the tomato truss class, what a great word.

You will also notice we have note pages which will enable you to make talk notes and keep them safe as we do tend to keep our schedules for years on end—thought it might be useful.

This year being the 80th anniversary of D-Day we thought we would roll back the crafts to a make do and mend era, although we may have used modern buzz words. Finally we have added in dates that might be of interest to you.

Looking forward to a busy year of social events, gardens full of colour, scent and beneficial insects, may our community bloom.

Happy blooming 2024.

Stay safe xx

Dee Edwards
